

Pet Doctrines: A pet doctrine is one in which the main thrust of the doctrine is NOT a salvation issue, not supported by scripture except when scripture is twisted, used as a means of bullying other people, considered higher knowledge than everyone else (refer back to the bullying part), and will be used as an excuse to no longer congregate/associate with others who are in agreement on all salvation issues, but disagree with this "new" idea.